Sylvie Godin

Originally from Acadia (N.B.), Sylvie Godin studied Visual Arts at Moncton University for three years and decided to move to Vancouver during the summer of 1988. She studied “make-up artistry” at the Blanche McDonald Centre and the Vancouver Film School some years later.

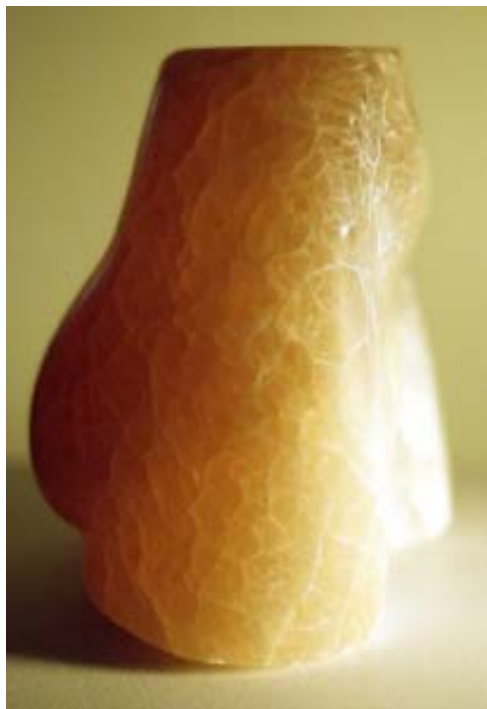

She currently works on film sets and on TV productions with the CBC French Network. She was awarded the “Cable Ace Award” for best make-up category presented in Los Angeles in 1995.

She was introduced to stone sculpting by Reto Marti in 2005 and has designed two sculptures and a third one in collaboration with Reto. She is presenting them here for you to enjoy.
